from the scene of active operations, having completed its two years term of service.-It arrived early in the morning, but its offcial reception by the Common Council did not take place until 4 o'clock r. s. At-that hour it formed, three hundred strong, in the Park, and, preceded by Helmsmal-ler's band, marched into Broadway, where a portion of the Seventy-first N. Y. S. M.

was waiting to escort them on their march through the principal streets of the city.

The procession marched round the lower end of the Park, along Park Row, back through the Park, where it was reviewed by the Common Council, and up Broadway to Madison Square; then down town again to the Park Barracks. There a substantial banquet was served in the evening, where at appropriate toasts were drank and speeches made.

The banquet was given by the Committee on National Affairs of the Common Council, and was perhaps the most successful that has yet been tendered to any of our return regiments. Generel Fitz John Portor was present, and received a large share of the soldiers' affection. This regiment was formerly in General Porter's division, and had learned to confide in and trust him implicity. It must have been extremely gratifying to the general to know that his soldiers, who have canvassed his every order in camp and on the march with all the intelligence of American freemen, were so cazer to cheer him still --Speeches were made by Colonel Lansing and Captain Mott, of the United States Artillery. The name of General McClellan never failed to bring out a succession of the loudest and heartiest cheers, and most of the speeches of the evening were repetitions and affirmations of the unbounded faith of ting Yankee host, we pray, and not as a Democratic convention. Let him take any shape but that I Already we have visions of the men of feeble knees, tender feet, ions of the men of feeble knees, tender feet, but and prefect storm of cheers and greeted by a perfect storm of cheers and but the soldiers, some of whom actahuzzas by the soldiers, some of whom actu-ally wept for joy at beholding their brave oung leader again. LET THE SOLDIERS VOTE.

The Republicans affect to be so very anxious that the soldiers shall be allowed o vote at the time of the elections in the States whence they come, we would suggest that the experiment of holding an election in camp be tried. It is evident that the administration is puzzled as to whom it shall give the command of the Army of the Potomae, and can get no honest counsel from its pretentions supporters, for the reason that they are divided among themselves on the question—some clamoring for FREMONT, SOME for BUTLER, SOME for SICKies, and a few for the retention of Hooker. Now this is a matter in which the soldiers are not only interested but in reference to which they are peculiarly fit to decide .-The prudence and courage of McCLELLAN, reluctantly, for the reasons that we hold it eminently just that those noble men who have been drawn away to imperil their lives to maintain law, should not be deprived of the high and distinctive right of citizenship except for eogent reason, and beown election, trial by grand and petitjuries, | cause it always becomes the modesty of an courts of the last resort the task of deciding their acts unconstitutional, unless they are palpably so. To the soldier we have no more desirous than they that the Constitution should be faithfully maintained.

If the votes of our soldiers in the Esid could be constitutionally taken, without fraud or coercion, every citizen, who respects the laws and desires the restoration of the Union, would be well satisfied that it should be done. But such is not the design of these who have advocated these proxy" laws. Their object has been to use the votes of the army as a means of perpetunting their own political power, by the practice of bold and wholesale frauds. Republicans of the New York Legislature voted down every amendment to the proxy bill that sought to protect the soldier in the free exercise of the right of suffrage, and to punish any attempt at coercion or trickery on the part of the officers designated to receive the ballots.

The design of the Republican party is manifested in the disgraceful nets of the Administration in the dismissal of Lieut. Edgerly, of New Hampshire, for voting the Democratic State ticket, and in importing men by thousands into that State and Connecticut to support the Republican Abolition candidates. These facts are enough to prove the real object of those who, while desirous of enacting laws which should give them the opportunity to make a political Abolition machine of the army, would be the last to allow our soldiers the free exer-cire of the right of suffrage. -N. Y. Argus. SECOND THOUGHT.

New York, March 24, 1863. Dr. J. H. Schenck-Dear Sir: 1 feel it a duty I owe to you, and all who are suffering under the disease known as consumption and liver complaint, to let them know what great benefits I have received from your Pulmonic Syrup and Scawced Tonic in so short a time.

By the blessing of God it has cured me thus far.

Dr. Schenck, I will now make my statement to you as follows:—About eighteen mention ago I was attacked with a server cough, and it settled on my lings: I could not retain anything I ate, and suffered with evening fevers and night aweats. I was very much reduced. The whites of my eyes were very yellow, like. wise my skin; my appetite all gone, and unable to digest what I did eat; bowels swollen, irreguhr and costive. I was very low spirited, and had such violent spells of coughing when I lay down at night and when I arose in the moraing, that they would last one or two hours. [then would be nearly exhausted, and was entirely unable to lie on my left side. I cannot describe my wretched suffering as I wish to do; Every organ in my body was diseased or deranged. Such was my situation at this time; and I was confined to my bed from the last of February, 1862, to June, 1862, and was not able to sit up. I had the best of medical attendance the whole of the time. My rough was so very had it racked me very much. I at this time raised a large quantity of thick, yellow, offensive matter, sometimes with blood, and it was generally accompanied by nausea and a farred and thick coated tongue. At the time of coughing so hadly I would have sharp, shouting pains in my left side and heart, night swents and soreness all through my whole chest ; had much inward feret, pain in my back and under my shoulder blades, and in the small of my back, and at times so severe that it would throw For Norvous Debility and General Las- me into spasms.
